PART FIRST

BILL OF RIGHTS.

ARTICLE 1st. All men are born equally free and independent: Therefore, all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

Equality of men; origin and object of government.
liii, 212. lxv, 113.

[ART.] *2d. All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights—among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness.

Natural rights.
liv, 117, 590.
lxv, 103. lxvii, 59.
lxxii, 95.
lxxiii, 33, 34.
lxxv, 31.
lxxvii, 581.

[ART.] 3d. When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

Society, its organization and purposes.
liii, 9.
lxxi, 555.

[ART.] 4th. Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience.

Rights of conscience unalienable.
liii, 9. lix, 225.

[ART.] 5th. Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion: provided he doth not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship.

Religious freedom recognized.
liii, 9. lviii, 240.
lix, 225. lxiv, 48.
lxix, 381.
lxxvi, 420.

[ART.] 6th. As morality and piety, rightly grounded on evangelical principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is Public worship of the Deity to be encouraged.

liii, 9. lxvi, 230.
lxxv, 424, 562.
lxxvi, 408.

*First inserted in this and following articles of Bill of Rights in General Statutes, 1867.

most likely to be propagated through a society, by the institution of the public worship of the Deity, and of public instruction in morality and religion; therefore, to promote those important purposes, the people of this state have a right to empower, and do hereby fully empower, the legislature, to authorize, from time to time, the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, within this state, to make adequate provision, at their own expense, for the support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality:

Right of electing religious teachers.
Sm., 1. liii, 9, 138.
lvi, 508.
lviii, 170.
lxvi, 230.

Provided notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their own public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And no person, of any one particular religious sect or denomination, shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the teacher or teachers of another persuasion, sect, or denomination.

Free toleration.
liii, 9.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves quietly, and as good subjects of the state, shall be equally under the protection of the law: And no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another, shall ever be established by law.

Existing contracts not affected.

And nothing herein shall be understood to affect any former contracts made for the support of the ministry; but all such contracts shall remain, and be in the same state as if this constitution had not been made.

State sovereignty
lxvi, 369.

[Art.] 7th. The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

[ART.] 8th. All power residing originally in, and being derived from, the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them.

Accountability of magistrates and officers. lxvi, 369. lxvii, 49.

[ART.] 9th. No office or place whatsoever, in government, shall be hereditary—the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.

No hereditary office or place.

[ART.] 10th. Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought, to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power, and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

Right of revolution. lii, 592. lxv, 113.

[ART.] 11th. All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect, and be elected, into office; [but no person shall have the right to vote or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language and to write; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age or upwards on the first day of January, A. D. 1904;]* [and provided further, that no person shall have the right to vote, or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall have been convicted of treason, bribery, or any wilful violation of the election laws

Private property for public use, etc. i, 120, 130. ii, 22. iii, 534. iv, 568. vii, 35. viii, 398. x, 369. xi, 19. xvii, 47, 64. xxv, 541. xxvii, 183. xxxv, 141. xxxvi, 404. xlvii, 444. l, 591. li, 504. liv, 590. lvi, 399, 514. lviii, 110, 549. lix, 191, 260, 480. lx, 219, 346, 522. lxi, 631. lxii, 66. lxv, 113. lxix, 33, 445. lxx, 344. lxxii, 95, 311, 532. lxxiv, 90, 538, 593. lxxv, 262. lxxvi, 591, 611. lxxvii, 65. lxxviii, 388.

[ART.] 12th. Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary, or an equivalent. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this state controllable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.

Conscientiously scrupulous, not compellable to bear arms.

[ART.] 13th. No person, who is conscientiously scrupulous about the lawfulness of bearing arms, shall be compelled thereto, provided he will pay an equivalent.

Legal remedies to be free, complete, and prompt. xxv, 539, 540. lxi, 610. lxv, 113. lxxvii, 308.

[ART.] 14th. Every subject of this state is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

Accused entitled to full and substantial statement of charge; not obliged to furnish evidence; may produce proofs and be fully heard, etc. Sm., 367. i, 56, 130, 140. xlviii, 57, 398. lii, 459. lv, 179. lviii, 314. lxiii, 406. lxiv, 442, 491. lxvi, 577, 633. lxvii, 279. lxviii, 496.

[ART.] 15th. No subject shall be held to answer for any crime, or offense, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defense, by himself, and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

lxix, 512. lxxiii, 227, 548. lxxv, 516. lxxvi, 309, 310. lxxviii, 222. lxxx, 535.

[Art.] 16th. No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offense. Nor shall the legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service) without trial by jury.

No person to be again tried after an acquittal; trial by jury in capital cases. lxvii, 278, 279, 280. lxxx, 395.

[Art.] 17th. In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happened, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate, of the citizen, that no crime or offense ought to be tried in any other county than that in which it is committed;—except in cases of general insurrection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the judges of the superior court, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the offense may be committed, and upon their report, the [legislature]* shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

Criminal trials in county, except in general insurrection. xx, 250. lvi, 175. lxi, 423, 426. lxvi, 504. lxxvii, 288.

[Art.] 18th. All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. Where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do† the lightest [offenses]:‡ For the same reason a

[Art.] 19th. [Every subject hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial, in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued, but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.]*

[Art.] 20th. In all controversies concerning property—and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has been heretofore otherwise used and practiced, [and except in cases in which the value in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars, and title of real estate is not concerned]† the parties have a right to a trial by jury and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in cases arising on the high seas and such as relates to mariners' wages the legislature shall think it necessary hereafter to alter it.

Only qualified persons to serve as jurors, and to be fully compensated. lxxx, 320.

[Art.] 21st. In order to reap the fullest advantage of the inestimable privilege of the trial by jury, great care ought to be taken, that none but qualified persons should be appointed to serve; and such ought to [be]‡ fully compensated for their travel, time, and attendance.

Population of New Hampshire

NUMBER AND DISTRIBUTION OF INHABITANTS

Population of the State.—New Hampshire was one of the original thirteen States. Its population on April 1, 1930, according to the Fifteenth Census, was 465,293, which represents an increase of 22,210, or 5.0 per cent, as compared with the population on January 1, 1920. The total land area of the State, as shown in Table 3, is 9,031 square miles. The average number of inhabitants per square mile in 1930 was 51.5, as compared with 49.1 in 1920.

Table 1 shows the population of New Hampshire from 1790, the year of the first Federal census, to 1930, together with the increase in each decade.

Counties, cities, and minor civil divisions.—In the tables which follow (Tables 2 to 6) the population of New Hampshire is shown by counties, cities, and other minor civil divisions, with some comparative figures from previous censuses.

Cities of 10,000 or more.—There are nine cities in the state which had a population of 10,000 or more in 1930. Table 2 shows for these cities the population at each census for which figures are available, together with the increase during each decade. The figures shown for the earlier censuses represent, in many cases, the population of the town prior to its incorporation as a city. Manchester, the largest city, first attained a population of 10,000 between 1840 and 1850. Rochester is the only city added to this group following the census of 1920.

Of the civil divisions known as "grants" and "purchases," 7 have had no population returned at any of the last three censuses and so are omitted from the list of minor civil divisions in Table 4.

Presidential Conventions

Four sets of Presidential electors appeared on the New Hampshire ballots used in the general election of November, 1932. The Republican and Democratic electors were nominated at State conventions held September 27 and September 28 at Concord and the electors of Communist and Socialist parties were named in petitions filed with the Secretary of State.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

A National Convention of Delegates representing the Republican Party of the United States was held at Chicago, Illinois, June 14, 1932. This Convention nominated Herbert C. Hoover of Leland Stanford University, California, for President and Charles R. Curtis of Topeka, Kansas, for Vice President. At the Republican State Convention the Hoover and Curtis electors named were Van H. Dodge, Whitefield, Arthur E. Moreau, Manchester, Huntley N. Spaulding, Rochester, and Abby L. Wilder, of Rindge.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

The Democratic National Convention was held also at Chicago, Illinois, from June 27 to July 2, 1932. Franklin D. Roosevelt of Hyde Park, New York, was nominated for President, and John N. Lord, Hanover, George W. Nutter, Rollinsford, and John T. O'Dowd, Manchester.

COMMUNIST PARTY

The Communist Party of which William Z. Foster of New York and James W. Ford of Ensley, Alabama, were the standard bearers, by petition named for electors to be placed on the November ballot: Henry C. Iram, Washington, John Mackinnon, Milford, Daniel McBain, Concord, and Thure Petersen, Concord. This party also placed upon the ballot for the office of Governor of the State, William J. Wilgus, Jr., of Claremont; Fred B. The national candidates were Norman Thomas of New York City, for President, and James H. Maurer of Reading, Pennsylvania, for Vice President. The electors were George C. Brooks, Franklin, Emil Hangas, New Ipswich, John Palm, Milford, and Earl B. Young, Laconia. This party also placed upon the ballot for the office of Governor, Frank T. RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the primary election twenty-three recounts of ballots were conducted by the secretary of state, eight of these being in Republican contests and fifteen in Democratic contests. By only two of these recounts were the nominations of candidates affected. The two changes are explained as follows:

In Senatorial District No. 20, Republican returns gave Harry T. Hayes of Rochester and John M. Hubbard of Rochester 1584 votes each. The recount gave Mr. Hayes 1574 votes and Mr. Hubbard 1589 votes, thereby establishing the nomination of Mr. Hubbard.

In Manchester, Ward 13, of the five persons seemingly the Democratic nominees for representatives, Napoleon Proulx lost at the recount sixty-five votes, leaving his total only 155. Thus the nomination was transferred to Almon A. Boisvert who had at the recount 216 votes and the fifth place among the nominees.

The following list shows briefly the name of the person interested, also his figures of the "return" after the primary, followed by his figures of the recount; the asterisk indicates the nominee of the party:

REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION, 1932

The Republican state convention met at Concord, Tuesday, September 27, 1932, with William J. Britton of Wolfeboro, president, and adopted the following platform:

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

We believe that under the leadership of Herbert Hoover and with the authority vested in him under the veto power that the Federal Congress adopted the most far-reaching reconstruction program ever evolved by any nation to meet an economic emergency.

While we have experienced hardships at home, three quarters of the population of the globe have suffered from revolutions and dictatorships. We still enjoy our traditional form of government as a solvent people with less suffering and greater certainty of returning stability than any nation on earth.

We shall continue to support a leadership that has successfully fought through the heaviest economic storm ever weathered by this country and we mean to maintain those principles which guarantee the opportunity to work and to live as a corner stone of American life.

We pledge ourselves to work for a rational work week and greater job security.

In the State we have had two major objectives:

Relief of the needy, and Economy in Government.

The State has assumed community burdens in order to free local money for unemployment relief and to permit tax reductions.

We advocate the State permanently taking over the maintenance of "trunk-line" and "state-aid" roads.

We agree to the cancellation of loans made to towns and cities by the State and approved by the Court as emergency borrowings to meet unemployment needs.

We would restore the vote and eliminate the annual publication of the names of those citizens compelled through necessity to accept unemployment relief.

The "state tax" has been reduced, average property taxes have decreased for the second time in forty years and the largest unexpended balance on record returned to the state treasury from appropriations this past fiscal year.

This has been accomplished:

1. By Legislative economy;

2. By the Comptroller system organized to supervise expenditures;

3. Through successful co-operation with local Communities on a tax reduction program.

We uphold the State administration in the aid given the milk producers in meeting the acute milk marketing problem confronting that industry and pledge continued support in their behalf.

We believe that home industries sponsored by the Arts and Crafts Commission have a definite place in New Hampshire and deserve state aid.

We pledge our support to the development of industry, agriculture and recreation through the Development Commission and the Agricultural Extension Service.

We pledge ourselves to further strengthen the laws relating to the regulation of public utilities for the protection of the consumer and the investor.

The normal activities of State Departments and Institutions shall be continued. We advocate economy but not at the expense of useful or necessary services.

We subscribe to the National Platform of the Republican Party.

We have faith in those we have nominated and to them we pledge our support.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION, 1932

The Democratic state convention met at Concord, Wednesday, September 28, 1932, and organized by the election of William H. Craig of Manchester as President, and adopted the following platform:

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

After three years of management of its affairs by the present administration, this country finds its factories closed, its agriculture prostrate, its business at a standstill, and its people by millions out of work and with their life savings swept away. In the same time there has been a tremendous growth in the cost of government and taxes have been piled upon taxes until business and the home owner can barely stagger along under the load.

It is time for a change.

We call upon the voters to bring about that change by electing Franklin D. Roosevelt President of the United States, John N. Garner Vice President, Henri T. Ledoux Governor of New Hampshire, Fred H. Brown United States Senator, William N. Rogers and Jeremiah J. Doyle Members of Congress, and the other candidates of our party to the offices for which they have been nominated.

We pledge:

Drastic reduction in the cost of government with corresponding reduction in taxes.

Careful scrutiny of the expenditure of every dollar of state money.

Encouragement to the towns and cities to reduce the tremendous sums they have been raising by taxation, and the maintenance of "trunk line" and "state aid" roads by the State.

Cancellation of loans made this year by the State to cities and towns as emergency borrowings to meet unemployment needs.

Abolition of the poll tax on women.

Continued support to the cause of labor, the letting of highway contracts to New Hampshire contractors employing New Hampshire labor so far as practicable.

In relation to injunctions in labor disputes we pledge the enactment of a law in this state embodying the provisions of the Act of Congress of March 23, 1932, commonly known as the "Yellow Dog Contract" act.

Repeal of the law that deprives of this right to vote those citizens who have had the misfortune to require aid from county or town.

Support of the Department of Agriculture, agricultural associations, and the Agricultural Extension Service.

Immediate repeal of the 18th amendment, state control of liquor, no saloons and no speakeasies.

We heartily endorse the Democratic National Platform.

On these issues and principles we ask the support and cooperation in the coming campaign of all independent public spirited men and women of New Hampshire.
